AFL PLAY

ROLE DESCRIPTION BLURBS

WE'RE LOOKING FOR A VOLUNTEER COORDINATOR

Do you love bringing people together and making sure everyone feels supported? Our club is on the lookout for a Volunteer Coordinator to help recruit, support, and celebrate the amazing volunteers who keep our club running.

This is a rewarding role where you'll:

- Welcome and support new volunteers
- Help match people to roles that suit their skills
- Keep our volunteer team connected and appreciated

If you're organised, friendly, and passionate about building a strong club community, we'd love to have you on board!

Time commitment: 1–5 hours per week
Interested? Get in touch with [contact details].

GOT AN HOUR TO SPARE? BECOME A CLUB MICRO VOLUNTEER

Not everyone can commit big hours to a footy club – and that's okay! By becoming a Micro Volunteer, you can make a big difference with just a small amount of time.

From helping with social media, scoring on game day, setting up raffle prizes, or even putting out goal post pads – there are plenty of small, one-off or short-term tasks that keep our club running smoothly.

No matter your skills, there's a way to get involved. Every little bit helps, and it's a great way to be part of our club community without a big commitment.

Time commitment: As little as 1 hour!
Keen to help out in small ways that make a big impact? Contact [details].

WE'RE LOOKING FOR A TEAM MANAGER

Want to play a key role in helping our team run smoothly, both on and off the field? We're seeking a Team Manager to support our coaches, players, and volunteers so the focus stays on footy.

As Team Manager, you'll:

- Keep team admin and game-day tasks organised
- Support player welfare and ensure everything runs efficiently
- Be a vital link between coaches, players, and the committee

This is a rewarding role for someone who's organised, a good communicator, and passionate about making a difference behind the scenes.

Time commitment: 4–7 hours per week
Interested? Contact [details] to find out more.

WE NEED A GROUND MANAGER

Are you organised, reliable, and love being at the heart of the action on game day? Our club is looking for a Ground Manager to make sure every home match day runs smoothly and safely.

As Ground Manager, you'll:

- Set up and pack down the ground and equipment
- Ensure everything is safe, ready, and running on schedule
- Support volunteers, umpires, and team staff on game day
- Be the go-to person for any match day issues

This is a hands-on role perfect for someone who thrives on organisation and enjoys being involved in the buzz of game day.

Time commitment: 4–8 hours per week during the season
Interested? Get in touch with [details] to join the team!

WE'RE LOOKING FOR A TEAM RUNNER

Want to be right in the middle of the action on game day? We need a Runner to help deliver messages from the coach to the players during matches.

As Runner, you'll:

- Keep communication flowing between coach and players
- Be part of the game-day energy on the field
- Support the team with enthusiasm and quick thinking

This is a great role for someone with good fitness, strong communication skills, and a love for footy!

Time commitment: 1–4 hours per week during the season
Interested? Contact [details] to get involved.

BECOME A TIMEKEEPER

Want one of the best seats in the house on game day? We're looking for a Timekeeper to take on the important role of keeping official time during matches.

As Timekeeper, you'll:

- Keep track of each quarter and record official timings
- Sound the siren in line with league procedures
- Help ensure the game runs smoothly and fairly

This role is perfect for someone organised, reliable, and enthusiastic about being part of the match-day team.

Time commitment: 1–5 hours per week during the season
Interested? Contact [details] to put your hand up!

PLAY.AFL