RIVERINA FOOTBALL NETBALL LEAGUE

What an exciting season that lies ahead in the Riverina League. After a somewhat quieter recruitment period last season, teams have more than made up for it heading into the 2026 campaign. At the top of the list is Coolamon's signing of 2017 Sandover Medallist Haiden Schloithe. Having played 225 games in the WAFL for South Fremantle, Schloithe is one of the best signings in the history of the competition. Wagga Tigers have also been busy over the off-season as they look to return to finals in 2026. The return of Luke McKay to the Riverina headlines their group of signings, while they've also been able to welcome Nick McCormack and Jesse Manton back to Robertson Oval. There's been a bit of change at Turvey Park over the off-season, with key forward Will Ford and defending Jim Quinn Medallist, Ethan Weidemann, departing the Club. It's not all doom and gloom, though, at Maher Oval, as Jordy Endemann, fresh off a stint in the VFL with the Sydney Swans and Tom Baxter, will don the red, white, and blue guernsey this season. Mangoplah Cookardinia United Eastlakes look poised for a strong year, and there is plenty of excitement at the Goannas after they signed former AFL player Jordan Footo for the 2026 season. There's been a fair changeover of personnel at reigning premiers Collingullie Wagga, who are striving to claim a rarely seen three-peat this year. Nick Perryman, Sam Stening, Jake Thorpe, Noah Harper and Brad Rauter are among the group of players who have departed Crossroads Oval over the summer. Josh Boag jumps across to the Demons from Narrandera, while he will also be joined by Brandon Hall, who joins 'Gullie from Pennant Hills in Sydney. Their Grand Final opponents, Ganmain Grong Grong Matong, have also gone through a fair bit of change ahead of Riley Corbett's first season as senior coach. Matt Hamblin, Jack Powell, Tom Banuelos and Jake Fairman have all left the Lions, as has premiership coach Sam Martyn, who will lead Batemans Bay this year. After a year playing with Corowa Rutherglen, Jack Rowston and Nathan Richards have returned home, which is a massive boost for Griffith. Leeton Whittton has also benefited from the return home of Jye Doyle, who is coming off a Best & Fairest win in Sydney with Inner West Magpies. Narrandera has also welcomed on board some fresh faces; they've also had Boag, Cooper Lee, Harry Pole and Harvey Odgers depart the nest over the off-season.

On the court, it's shaping up to be quite the interesting season. Reigning premiers Griffith will be fielding a new-look team this season after the off-season departure of Joh Munro, Brooke Buckley and Georgia Fuller. Jenna Richards has taken over as coach, with Munro returning to the Melbourne Vixens to take up a coaching opportunity. There has also been a fair few coaching changes with Mel Kenny (Turvey Park), Naomi Richards (Wagga Tigers), Liv Jolliffe (Collingullie Wagga), Layne Bradford and Lucy Litchfield (Narrandera), Katie Graham and Carley Graham (Leeton Whittton) and Lisa Reynoldson (Mangoplah Cookardinia United Eastlakes) either returning to previously held roles, or taking on a coaching role for the first time in 2026. Kirsty Lowe is going it alone at Coolamon after the off-season departure of Sarah Hillier, while there's plenty of excitement at Ganmain Grong Grong Matong with Georgia Tilyard continuing on.

FARRER FOOTBALL NETBALL LEAGUE

It is shaping up to be an exciting 2026 season in the Farrer League. After just falling short in last year's Grand Final, East Wagga Koorinal have added to their list with both Cayden Winter and Rhys Pollock jumping on board at the Hawks for their 2026 campaign. Reigning premiers Temora have undergone a fair bit of change over the off-season, with Best & Fairest Winner and 2024-25 Gerald Clear Medallist, Will Reinhold making the move to Melbourne to play in the VFL with Carlton. The Kangaroos have replenished, however, with Abe Wooden, James Godde and Will Ford among those who will be donning the blue and white this season. North Wagga have been the big off-season movers under new coaches Nathan Dennis and Jed Winter, with Jacob May, Corey Watt and Troy Curtis among a massive group of inclusions as the Saints look to begin their rise up the ladder. The Rock Yerong Creek have also been busy, having added a good group of players with First Grade experience from the Riverina Football League. After missing out on finals last season, expect the Magpies to be once again around the mark in 2026. Borellan are another side that looks destined to make a strong run at a Finals berth, having added some quality players over the off-season, including former Best & Fairest Winner Riley Irvin. Bailey Morrissey, Nick Cooper, and James Rourke have also jumped on board at the Two Blues. Coleambally surged up the ladder last year under returning coach Tom Groves, and they narrowly fell short in what was a thrilling Elimination Final against Marrar. The Blues will be without three-time defending Best & Fairest Winner James Buchanan, who has gone to have a crack in the highly regarded Ovens and Murray League competition with Lavington. However, they have picked up experienced midfield duo Matt Rainbird and Bryce O'Garey, who jump across to Coleambally from Leeton Whittton. Charles Sturt University were arguably the biggest surprise packet last season, being best of the rest, behind the two dominant teams of EWK and Temora. Retention has been good from the Bushpigs, and they will be right up among it come the business end of the season. Marrar and Northern Jets have also made some solid additions for the upcoming season, and they will both be looking to continue to build with their respective young lists under coaches Zac Brain and Jack Harper.

On the court, it is shaping up to be a fascinating season with quite a few new faces taking on coaching positions. Abbey Reinhold and Halle Derrick have stepped up to be co-coaches at Temora, while Sarah Croker will join Keely Alexander as a coach at North Wagga. After a sensational return last season, which culminated in a Premiership win and a Club and League Best & Fairest, Marrar's Bridie Willis will take on the coaching role solo in 2026. Hannah Keely has taken over as coach at EWK, while Paige Hanrahan will join Alice Mackenzie as co-coach at Northern Jets. Tegan Ashcroft will also be striving to help The Rock Yerong Creek begin their rise up the ladder after a couple of tough seasons for the Magpies.
